

RECOVERY WORKS SOURCES

Grateful acknowledgement of these sources that have been reviewed for background information:

Center for Disease Control	National Safety Council
CT Department of Labor	Nevada Recovery Friendly Workplace (DBPH)
CT Department of Public Health	New Hampshire Recovery Friendly Workplace
CT Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services	Occupational Safety & Health Administration
Drugabuse.gov	Pennsylvania Recovery Friendly Workplace
Gallup Management Journal	Recovery Research
Harvard Business Review	Shatterproof.org
Journal of Occupational and Environmental Medicine	SAMHSA: Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services
Medlineplus.gov	The Mayo Clinic
Minnesota Recovery Friendly Workplace	WisHope
NationalDrugScreening.com
National Institutes of Health

Disclaimers & Notes

- Fair Use Statement. This tool kit may contain copyrighted material, the use of which may not have been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. This material is being made available within an effort to explain the benefits of creating a Recovery Friendly Workplace for Connecticut employers and reducing the harm being done to the state's employers, workforce, economy, individual employees, and their families by substance use disorder. The materials in this tool kit are distributed without profit and are for educational purposes. This should constitute a "fair use" of any such copyrighted materials referenced in section 107 of the US Copyright Law. Anyone wishing to use material from this tool kit for purposes that extend beyond "fair use" must obtain expressed permission from the copyright owner.
- The Recovery Works Toolkit has been developed to raise awareness with businesses about how to respond to the risks associated with the misuse of opioids and other drugs. The content is meant for educational purposes only and not for the purpose of providing legal advice or replacing the work needed to develop a responsible drug-free workplace program. As such, it should not be used as a substitute for consultation with a legal professional, or other competent advisor.
- References to any agency, organization, vendor, product, service, or any other outside entity, does not constitute endorsement on behalf of DOL, DPH, or DMHAS. Any agencies, organizations, vendors, products, or services mentioned in this plan are used as examples for informational and teaching purposes.